

Many Social Courtesies To Be Given For Miss Mary Heermans, Bride-To-Be

By OLIVE P. JANSSEN

MISS MARY HEERMANS, whose engagement to Roy J. Orsney was made on last Friday, is to be extensively feted both before and after her wedding day.

The first of the long list of affairs will be a miscellaneous shower and bridge, Friday afternoon, to which Mrs. Walter Christie will be hostess at the Christie home on Pershing Drive. The guest list will include 44 of the married set.

Monday afternoon a miscellaneous shower will be given for Miss Heermans by the Misses Elvira, Elma and Catharine, at the Galentine home, on Montana street, in the afternoon.

For Wednesday, December 15, a party is to be given for Miss Heermans with Mrs. V. S. Hillis, Mrs. Herman Rosen and Miss Anne Chase as hostesses at the Hillis home, on Montana street.

Man, but it healed my skin!

"FOR days I suffered the burning, itching, and scaling skin, the disfiguring eruptions and scales. Then I was told of Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment, and it did the trick for me."

It's good for pimply faces, itching rashes and other skin troubles. Buy a box of Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment today and begin your treatment. At most druggists.

Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment

Why Cough, Cough, Cough!

Are you going to let it stick and become a chronic condition? Of course not. Not when you know you have Dr. Hoff's Cough-Laxative to loosen it up quickly. This medicine will produce gratifying results. All Druggists, etc., etc., etc.

This Man Lost More Than the Cost Of A New Suit

A short time ago I was in the office of a man who used to be listed as one of the most brilliant men in El Paso.

He still had his force as of old, but he had allowed his clothes to become shabby. So that unless you personally knew him you would not suspect his power.

Before I left him I saw him lose one chance that would have paid him big, simply because his clothes were shabby.

The price of cleaning his clothes would have probably saved this chance.

THINK—HOW DOES THIS APPLY TO YOU?

Plans Completed For Savoyan's Dance To Be Given At Elks' Home

PLANS are completed for the Savoyan dance to be given Wednesday evening at the Elks' clubhouse.

The program, including the dancing, will include a number of the city's most talented singers and dancers, among them Mrs. Carol Working who will dance an Orléans, to cotillions, Charles Andrews will sing a group of songs, Miss Sapperson, and Lawrence Armstrong whose Apache dance created so much admiration at the Casino recently, will give their dance. Ralph Wender and Miss Betty Wender will give a group of their pretty dances.

Refreshments will be served at the intermission, and numbers of other features will be to the enjoyment of the evening.

Mrs. David Berend was hostess Sunday evening at a delightful dancing party given at her home, 418 Mesa avenue. The house was decorated in a color scheme of yellow and white. During the evening Mr. Berend played several violin and guitar solos. He also gave a number of interesting readings. A salad and chocolate course were served. Mrs. Berend was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Clara Geller. Those present were: Goldie Rivel, Rose Hrab, Anna Stern, Mollie Geller, and Gertrude Reuben. Mesdames Clara Geller, David Cohen, A. Rivel, and David Berend; Messrs. Errol Lapovsky, Talc Holsberg, Abe Cohen, Simon Jacobs, Louis Armstrong, Mollie Jacobs, Ralph Cohen, H. Arch, David Cohen, Harry Stern and David Berend.

About $2000 was realized from the charity ball recently under the auspices of the Associated Charities. The ball was given as an aid to the city's poor. Mrs. Joseph F. Williams was chairman of general arrangements for the ball assisted by large numbers of committees composed of the city's prominent women.

The flavor planned especially for the hot-breads of the South

THOSE famous hot-breads and pancakes of every Southern home—how good they taste to the youngsters back for the holidays!

To make a syrup exactly suited to these beloved hot-breads was the great ambition of two young Southerners. Twenty-two years ago these two Louisianians, their memories full of the delicious sweets of cane-crushing time down on the old plantation, determined to match that old-time lusciousness, product for product.

Brer Rabbit Syrup

They put up and perfected one product after another, each the finest of its kind. Soon they were the biggest packers of sugar cane products in the world. Then their great ambition was fulfilled—they began the making of their cherished syrup.

This syrup is now at your grocer's.

Brer Rabbit they called it, in honor of the hero of the plantation stories of their boyhood. Already it is the largest selling high-grade syrup in the world.

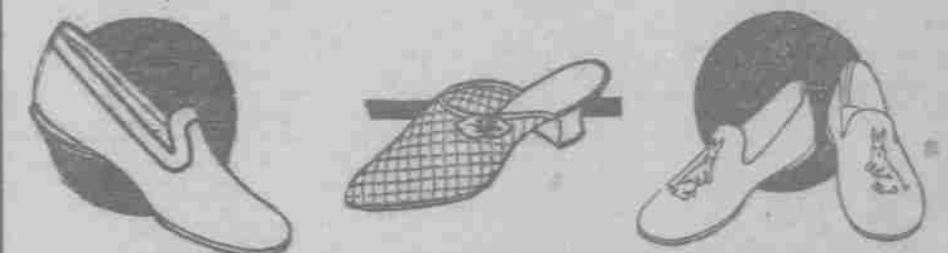

Order a can today. There are two Brer Rabbit syrups. The straight pure juice of the sugar cane (blue label) and a milder syrup of modified sweetness (brown label). This latter syrup is especially put up for those who prefer a softening of the rich sweetness of old-fashioned plantation syrup. Enjoy the mild Brer Rabbit favor tonight!
